

Parent and Child Program

Children learn languages fast when they live in the right environment. Let your child experience Chinese culture and absorb the language while you can choose to take a break, explore Beijing, or take a Chinese language course yourself. With options ranging from living with a Chinese family to attending school together with your a families child the possibilities for cultural immersion and linguistic aptitude are endless.

Participants

One parent & one child (5-14 years old) in Beijing

Options for two parents or several children are also available, please enquire to info@livethelanguage.cn for details

Your Child's Class Options

All year round

Your child will study a two hour morning and two hour afternoon curriculum of one-on-one children's Chinese language classes, taught by a specialized Chinese language teacher.

During Chinese school time: Sep – Jan (including Christmas) & Mar – June

Your child along with the host family's child will attend school together. School usually starts at about 9am and finishes around 4pm. Please note that either basic Chinese skills or a 2 week introduction course are required. This option is only available for families choosing the homestay accommodation option.

Parent's Class Options

Join any LTL adult Chinese language, kung fu, calligraphy, Chinese cooking, tai qi, or Chinese music classes for any desired length of time.

Accommodation Options

Homestay

Both parent and child live with a Chinese home-stay family who have a child in a similar age range. You will stay there not a guest, but as a part of the family, eating breakfast and dinner together and joining family activities on the weekends.

Apartment

Parent and child stay in a spacious en-suite double room in a shared apartment, within walking distance to the next subway station and less than 20 minutes away from the Central Business District.
